

Trustee, John Urbaniak

Current Term: 2011-2013

Total years in office:
2009-current

Occupation: Retired in April 2008 after 34 as a New York State Trooper. Prior to becoming a Trooper, John was a Police Officer in the Village of Lowville, NY. He served in the United States Navy and later with the New York Air National Guard. John retired as a 1st Sergeant from the 174th Fighter Wing at Hancock Field in Syracuse, NY. He enjoyed and proudly served for 32 years.

Village accomplishments: John will serve as chairperson over Goettel Park in the Village of Central Square. He previously served on the Village Planning Board from November 2008-June 2009.

Background: John and his wife, Robin, have lived in the village since 2003. John has two loving children, Eric (age 25) and Shelby (age 19).

Without the love and support of his family, he says, all of his past accomplishments would not have been reached and his future goals would not be achievable.

Interest & Hobbies:

John enjoys restoring old garden tractors and repairing small engines. He also enjoys the outdoors, hiking, cross country skiing and playing golf.

Goals:

- To represent the Village tax payers to the best of my ability.
- To maintain the character of our Village and improve our quality of life.
- To provide the highest quality of services and establish a safe and secure environment in which we can raise our families.
